IMPLEMENTATION

INTRODUCTION
The Area Plan will be presented to stake, mission, district, and temple presidents in coordinating council meetings. Stake and district presidents will introduce the plan in stake and district council meetings and train with bishops and branch presidents. Bishops and branch presidents will introduce the plan to ward and branch members in ward and branch council meetings and special Sunday meetings. Mission presidents will work with their mission leadership council and mission districts to ensure that missions are aligned with the Area Plan. Stakes, districts, wards, branches, families and individuals will be invited to set goals in harmony with the plan priorities and objectives.

CONTINUING EMPHASIS
On an ongoing basis, the Area Plan will be discussed and taught in stake, district, ward, and branch meetings such as conferences, sacrament meetings, and classes with an emphasis on progress being made to achieve the Area Plan goals.

MEASURING PROGRESS
Progress in stakes and districts will be measured primarily using key indicators from stake and district quarterly reports. Progress in wards and branches will be measured using key indicators from ward and branch quarterly reports. Families and individuals will measure their own progress.
